AO 472 (Rev. 09/16)	Order of Detention Pending Trial

Significant family or other ties outside the United States
✓ Lack of legal status in the United States
✓ Subject to removal or deportation after serving any period of incarceration
✓ Prior failure to appear in court as ordered
✓ Prior attempt(s) to evade law enforcement
✓ Use of alias(es) or false documents
Background information unknown or unverified
Prior violations of probation, parole, or supervised release

OTHER REASONS OR FURTHER EXPLANATION:

The defendant has five prior removals from the United States after entering illegally. He has used a false alias name, Raul Bustos Martinez, on more than one occasion, and has also presented false identification upon arrest. Although he has family here in Lincoln Park, his record of repeated re-entries after deportation demonstrates an unwillingness to comply with lawful orders.

Although his wife indicates he could live with her, he was recently arreseted, on 12/25/2022, for domestic violence against his spouse, that involved alleged assaultive behavior. Although these charges were dismissed because his wife did not wish to press charges, the Court does not believe it would be safe to permit her to serve as a third party custodian.

The evidence demonstrates by a preponderance that no conditions can adequately assure his appearance.

Part IV - Directions Regarding Detention

The defendant is remanded to the custody of the Attorney General or to the Attorney General's designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant must be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility must deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.
